

INSTRUCTIONAL LEADERS MEETING

May 18, 2017 • 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. • ESC Region 11

KEYNOTE

Penny Schwinn,

Deputy Commissioner of Academics - Texas Education Agency

Penny Schwinn is responsible for overseeing the TEA Assessment and Accountability Division as well as Standards and Programs. Schwinn began her work in education as a high school economics and history teacher in Baltimore and also served as a new teacher coach in south Los Angeles. Her successful teaching efforts earned her the Peter Kannam Award for Teaching Excellence, an Americorps Service Award, the Street Law Supreme Court Summer Institute placement, and the Gilder-Lerhman Fellowship. Prior to joining TEA, Schwinn served as Assistant Secretary for the Delaware Department of Education, and before that as Assistant Superintendent of Performance Management for the Sacramento City Unified School District. As an assistant superintendent in the Sacramento public school system, Schwinn created the first school choice calculator in the country as a tool for parents. Schwinn also helped lead the Sacramento Pathways initiative, a collaborative with higher education institutions to ensure students complete college after high school graduation.
