Build a Better Faculty Meeting

Lyndae Benton

This session will provide administrators with a template for turning faculty meetings into valuable learning experiences for teachers. Learn how to repurpose your valuable time with faculty and staff and take your campus to the next level with Instructional Focus faculty meetings.

Better Data Discussions: Exploring the Power in Numbers

Sharon Norwood

Leaders will dig into the processes of data disaggregation and examine quality tools to use with campus teams to improve student achievement.

Instructional Leadership 2.0: Taking Your Walkthroughs and Observations to the Next Level

Kristina Turner

Student achievement is impacted tremendously by the level of instruction experienced daily in the classroom. Participants will understand how to better identify effective and ineffective instructional practices and, most importantly, how to engage classroom teachers in meaningful dialogue. The ultimate goals are to 1) improve student learning outcomes; 2) collaboratively develop plans of support; and 3) support teachers in goal attainment.

Leading Across Generations

Jennifer Baadsgaard

How can we lead what we don't understand? This interactive session will focus on learning about the different generations that exist within our schools/districts, how to tap into their strengths, and the development of a plan moving forward to support them where they are.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:
